

Article published on December 27, 2009

Business people

Monitor staff

December 27, 2009

PHILIP BILODEAU of Deerfield, deputy director of Concord's General Services Department, has earned a master's of business administration degree from Franklin Pierce University. He has worked for the city for more than 20 years and serves as president of the New Hampshire Water Works Association.

JAMIE DEVLIN, formerly with the Great Bay Chapter of the American Red Cross in Portsmouth, has been reassigned as chief operating officer for the Concord region of the American Red Cross. IAN DYAR will be the regional emergency services director. Dyar moved to New Hampshire last month after serving as the emergency service director at the North Central Florida Chapter of the Red Cross for more than two years .

TRACY OUELLETTE has joined Lake Sunapee Region VNA and Hospice based in New London as home care program manager and KAREN JOHNSTON has joined as Community Health Services program manager. Ouellette is a critical care nurse who has worked in multi-level trauma centers for 12 years. Johnston's health care experience spans 30 years, including a position at Dartmouth Hitchcock Medical Center on the cardiac unit and 15 years at New London Hospital.

ZENAGUI BRAHIM, director of operations for the New Hampshire Manufacturing Extension Partnership in Concord, was honored with the Exemplary Effort award from the state Department of Economic Development. Brahim was recognized for his leadership role in advancing the state's manufacturing industry.

DOUG BUTLER of Frankestown has been named president of the Associated General Contractors of New Hampshire. Butler serves as a project executive for Gilbane Building Co. and has been a member of the association's board of directors for eight years.

JANICE MCBRIDE of Manchester has been appointed executive housekeeper of Presidential Oaks Retirement in Concord. McBride has many years of experience in customer service.

WADE BROWN of Concord has been named detective in the Criminal Investigations Division of the Concord Police Department. He previously was assigned to the Patrol Division. Brown has nine years of law enforcement experience.

CAROLYN BALDWIN of Gilmanton has been confirmed for another term on the State Historical Resources Council. Her term runs through Dec. 10, 2014.

MICHAEL SOCHAT of Weare has been confirmed for a term on the state Medical Review Subcommittee. His term runs through Dec. 9, 2012.

CAROL LEONARD of Hopkinton has been confirmed for a term on the state Midwifery Council. Her term runs through Nov. 10, 2013.

MARCIA SCHMIDT BLAINE of Plymouth has been nominated by Gov. John Lynch for another term on the State Historical Records Advisory Board. Her post is subject to confirmation by the Executive Council.

MELVIN BORRIN of Moultonboro has been nominated by Gov. John Lynch for another term on the state Moorings Appeals Board. His post is subject to confirmation.

JAMES RYAN of Northwood has been nominated by the Fish and Game Commission for a term on the state Rivers Management Advisory Committee. His post is subject to confirmation.