

NH MEP DIRECTOR RECEIVES BIA ABOVE AND BEYOND AWARD FOR EXCEPTIONAL SERVICE

Zenagui Brahim is One of Several Business Leaders Recognized at Annual Business Meeting

CONCORD – Zenagui Brahim, director of operations for the New Hampshire Manufacturing Extension Partnership (NH MEP), was one of the recipients of the Business and Industry Association’s (BIA) Above and Beyond awards at its annual business meeting and member reception on May 11th at the Center of New Hampshire in Manchester. The Above and Beyond awards recognize individuals who have shown a true commitment to the BIA and its mission while demonstrating outstanding service in order to help the organization reach its goals.

“We’re thrilled that Zenagui is being acknowledged for his dedication to the business community. He is most deserving,” said Mark Godfrey, chairman of the NHMEP Board of Directors. “The NH MEP partners with the BIA on a number of initiatives, including the Governor’s Annual Advanced Manufacturing and High Technology Summit. They are invaluable for the growth and sustainment of New Hampshire business and we are proud to be a part of their efforts.”

Above and Beyond award recipients were chosen by BIA staff members. Twenty-five local businesspeople were recognized this year.
